About us

Transport company MarTrans-Pol Sp. z o.o., founded in 2012, specialises in the national and international carriage of various full-load goods. The company holds a licence for the road haulage of goods and has a modern fleet which includes tractor units with Code XL-certified curtain-sided mega semi-trailers and refrigerated trailers. In total, the company has 60 sets, 20 of which have refrigerated trailers.

Scope of service

01 national transports

02 international transports

Our services include the national and international transport of full-load goods. We specialise in the transport of temperature-controlled products and goods with large volumes and non-standard dimensions.

Transport

refrigerated transport

Our refrigerated trucks are indispensable for transporting goods that require controlled temperatures. We serve food companies by transporting fresh produce, frozen food, dairy products, meat, fruit and vegetables. The pharmaceutical industry uses our services to transport medicines, vaccines and other medical products requiring specific temperature conditions. The chemical industry contracts us to transport chemicals requiring stable temperature conditions.

mega-trailers

Our mega trailers, which are used by manufacturing companies, are ideal for transporting goods with large volumes or non-standard dimensions. In particular, the automotive industry uses our services to transport car parts and the manufacturing industry to transport large machinery and equipment.

ADR transports

Our company is also experienced in ADR transport, which allows us to transport hazardous materials in accordance with the highest safety standards. With experienced drivers and a modern fleet, we guarantee timely and safe delivery of your cargo.
